At 4 35 A.M. on the 21st February 1889, the first passenger tram left Beeroor for Harehar this was considered a great event in the annals of the town and the people expressed their gratitude to Govt for the railway convenience their town now enjoys

The absence of an English school was long felt in the town, yet the inhabitants, from want of unanimity amongst themselves, failed to set on foot any measures for the opening of a school.

With a view to supply this want, the merchants and others of the place, taking advantage of this auspicious occasion, met together to consider what amount would be required for (3) the opening of a school, when M R. Ry Patre Rudrappa said that Rs 2000 as detailed below would be required for the purpose and offered to pay the amount himself provided the school is called after his name.

(1) For building - - - Rs 1500
(2) Establishment of 1 Teacher on 25 Rupees } 360
(3) Furniture - - - 140
Total Rs 2000

This liberal offer was gladly accepted by the meeting.

The members present promised to send 21 Pupils to the proposed school, agreeing to pay not less than 1 Rupee per head, subsequent admissions being made liable to payment ~~arranged~~ in accordance with the scale prevailing in Govt institutions.

M R Ry Patre Rudrappa having agreed to maintain the the school for the first-year, the meeting resolved to apply to Govt for the continuance of the school from Local funds or municipal funds of the town or from both, the fee receipts during the first year being credited to either of the funds as the Govt deems proper

The meeting desired, to communicate its resolution to the Dy Com with a view to his obtain ing Govt Sanction thereto

It is also requested, to locate temporarily the school in a convenient building till a pucka house should be built for the same.

When Govt accords its Sanction to the proposal, Rao R Ry Rudrappa would at once place Rs 2000 at the disposal of Govt.
